

1.11 Accountability and Audit Relationships

The Kilmarnock Leisure Centre Trust (KLCT) is accountable for the way it has discharged its stewardship of operational subsidy from East Ayrshire Council and from the income revenue from the Galleon Centre and any other business it operates.

The KLCT is audited each year and our audited accounts are reported to and checked by the Office of the Charity Regulator (Charity Number SCO08314). In addition a further audit is reported to East Ayrshire Council by an external auditor.
